

THE CHESTER GROSVENOR AND SPA

BUDGET-CONSCIOUS CONFERENCE BOOKERS OFFERED FIVE STAR BOOST

The Chester Grosvenor and Spa is offering conference bookers on a budget a helping hand. The meetings and events team at the five star venue have launched an innovative way to guarantee value for money for customers booking conferences, meetings and events. It puts the client's budget at the heart of everything The Chester Grosvenor and Spa can offer from rooms and meals to audio visual requirements and team-building. So instead of quoting day delegate rates and room hire costs the money available to spend becomes the starting point.

Paul Cookson, director of events, explains: "This is a new way of doing business and definitely the way forward for us.

"We want people to walk into The Chester Grosvenor and Spa with a figure in mind and then we will take it from there.

"Delegate rates can scare people and in the current economic climate we do not want that. This is all about listening to what the client wants and putting 'what can we do for you?' at the centre of our relationship with each customer.

"If you thought the five star luxury of The Chester Grosvenor and Spa was out of your reach for your conference, meeting or event – then think again.

"Come and talk to us about how we make your event happen."
